

AGILITY SEMINAR

with JENN CRANK

March 30 and March 31, 2013

ABOUT JENN: Jennifer Crank is the owner and founder of IncrediPaws Dog Training in Reynoldsburg, Ohio. Jenn began training dogs at the age of five. At seven, she earned her first agility title with the family Sheltie. In 1993, Jenn got her first Sheltie, Skittles, and earned her first MACH.

Since that time, Jenn's dedicated partnerships with her dogs have taken them to the highest levels of competition. Jenn and her Sheltie Guess represented the U.S. at the Agility World Championships in 2004, 2006, and 2007, earning the individual silver medal in 2006 and individual bronze medal in 2007. Jenn and Guess have numerous placements at AKC and USDAA national championships to their credit.

In 2009, Jenn and another talented Sheltie, Blaster, helped bring home a team silver medal at the AKC World Team competition in Austria. In 2011, Jenn and Blaster won a gold medal at the inaugural World Agility Open, held in England. Jenn and Xtreme were named as alternates for this competition as well. In 2012, Jenn helped earn a bronze medal at the World Agility Open with Blaster and Salsa. In 2013, Jenn was selected to coach Team USA for the World Agility Open.

Jenn has been training with her coach and mentor Linda Mecklenburg since 1999, and has been teaching agility since 2002. She uses the Awesome Paws Handling System as a basis for her instruction and training, and stays current on developments in the system through regular private lessons, seminars, and camps.
